(C.U.P. Correspondent.)

Ottawa, November 4.—(C.U.P.)—A spurge of appointments to the senate and important government positions and possibly a change in the federal government lineup before parliament meets is anticipated here.

Illness has incapacitated both Finance Minister Dunning and Postmaster General Elliott and while there is a chance Mr. Dunning will continue in the cabinet, it is unlikely he will be able to handle the heavy duties of the finance department again. Revenue Minister Ilsley has been looking after Mr. Dunning's work since the latter's collapse in the commons last June and appears to be doing a good job, along with his regular work with his own department.

Mr. Ilsley continues to be mentioned as the likely successor to Mr. Dunning although there is a conflicting rumor that the Revenue Minister would drop out of politics and would be willing to accept an appointment to the Nova Scotia supreme court. The situation naturally depends on the extent of Mr. Dunning's recovery within the next few months but the government probably will want to have a full-time finance minister by the time parliament meets.

Mulock Likely Postmaster

Youthful William Mulock, Liberal member for North York, is the likely choice for the postmaster general portfolio. Mr. Elliott's illness is still considered serious and he will not return to the cabinet, according to several well-informed sources here. Mr. Mulock is a great friend of the Prime Minister's and has showed considerable ability in his parliamentary duties.

Other cabinet-shakeup rumors insist that Hon. C. G. Power, minister of pensions and national health, will accept a senate appointment and Dr. James McCann, liberal member for Renfrew South, will succeed him. Justice Minister Lapointe is reported to be desirous of appointment to the senate, but the old warrior of the Liberal party plays such an important role in the commons as Mr. Mackenzie King's right hand man that most political experts here do not believe he could be spared from the house.

Six senate seats are open and will be filled shortly along with the numerous diplomatic vacancies. New ministers are to be appointed to the Canadian legations at Tokyo and Paris and the new legation at Brussels will need a minister.

By-elections Dull

Little excitement is being caused here by the four by-elections scheduled for November 14 in London, Waterloo South, Montreal-Cartier and Brandon. Conservative Manion will be returned in London and the Liberals decided not to oppose him after the Prime Minister made a specific request in this regard.

The Montreal seat will return a Liberal as it has ever since the riding was formed in 1925. Waterloo South and Brandon have been predominately Conservative and there is strong possibility they will continue to be represented by Conservative members in the commons. With the Canada-United States trade treaty unsigned there is no particularly new issue for the by-elections and dull campaigns will result.

11 Per Cent. of $2,850 Quota Already Collected

With the first week of the campaign for the Amalgamated Charities drawing to a close, 11 per cent of the total objective has been collected, as compared with Wednesday's showing of 3 per cent.

Coincident with the heartening news from the Charities Committee of increased returns comes the following letter from the Registrar, pointing out the need for a prompt and general response from the student body to the Charities Drive.

MOONEY DISCUSSES HOUSING PROBLEMS

Workshop Presents Sketches Dealing With This Topic

The Sociological Society's opening meeting will take place on Tuesday evening, at 8 p.m., in the R.V.C. Common Room, as announced by the executive earlier this week. Central features on the evening's programme will be an address on "Problems in Community Housing," by Mr. George Mooney, of the Metropolitan Housing Committee, and the presentation of several dramatic sketches from "One-Third of a Nation."

Featured along with Mr. Mooney's talk on housing will be the presentation by the Workshop of the Players' Club of selections from the United States Federal Theatre Project's drama, "One-Third of a Nation." The drama editor of the Daily stated that this play is part of a larger project known as "The Living Newspaper," and was written by Mr. Arthur Arent of the Federal Theatre Project. The play deals with the causes of housing problems in large cities and also suggests remedies for tenement overcrowding, deterioration and other evils. The scenes presented will be under the direction of Maurice Hecht, director of the Workshop.

John Pearson, president of the Sociological Society, stated that it was expected that Mr. Mooney's broad experience with housing problems in various cities of Canada would enable him to inform students of particular aspects of the larger processes of city growth and development, of which the housing problem is an important feature. Dr. Dawson, head of the Sociology Department when approached last night, emphasized the importance of housing problems in their reference to the general scheme of development of the large urban community.

This meeting is open to all students, regardless of whether or not they are enrolled in courses of the Sociology Department.

MEDICOS TO GATHER FOR SWING SESSION

Medical students will dust off their dancing shoes and gather in the Assembly Hall of the Medical Building after the Varsity-McGill game tomorrow afternoon for a tea dance.

Jack Small's Rhythm Doctors will supply the music. To emphasize the medical atmosphere, many nurses will be present to provide partners for the medicos.

To encourage the Meds to keep on their toes, and to reveal their ability as Fred Astaire, a prize will be awarded to the best shaggers. A roving candid-camera man will be on hand to snap the attempts of the swinging Meds. Dancing will continue from 4.45 to 7 o'clock.

The price for men is 50 cents, and for women 25 cents. Tickets are on sale in the Medical Building.

DENTS UNDERGO MASS HYPNOSIS

Dr. Viner Puts Undergraduates to Sleep

Speech Gives Outline of Causes of Mental Disorders

Mass hypnosis was practised last night at the meeting of the Dental Undergraduate Society by Dr. Norman Viner who addressed the society on the topic of "Hypnotism." At the request of the members present, Dr. Viner gave a demonstration of the methods he follows in hypnotising people.

Before beginning his attempt at hypnosis, Dr. Viner told the men that he would not try to do more than put them to sleep. At the conclusion, he stated that those who had been put to sleep would sleep for five minutes. After about three minutes at signs of restiveness on the part of his audience, he snapped on the lights. It then turned out that three men were asleep, one of them continued to sleep until the full five minutes were up. Those who were affected by Dr. Viner's methods were Frank Giannasio, captain of the basketball team, John V. Nicholson, and Abram Handelman.

Hypnosis Minor Factor
Stating at the beginning of his talk that while hypnosis has a dramatic element, it is one small and unimportant branch in the cure of mental troubles. Before continuing his speech, Dr. Viner then proceeded to outline the causes and the treatment of mental disorders. The causes of mental disorders (Continued on Page Four.)

FEDERATION GIVES TWO SCHOLARSHIPS

Junior Award Is Offered for the First Time

For women graduates under twenty-five years of age the Canadian Federation of University Women offers for the first time a Junior Scholarship of $700 for the season 1939-40.

This new award is open to women graduates of Canadian Universities, and, while preference will be given those who have studied only in one university, the scholarship is open to any one who is not more than twenty-five on February 1 next. One requirement is that the place of study must be approved by the Scholarship Committee.

The Federation is again offering a Travelling Scholarship for the season 1939-40, of the value of $1,250, and this too is open to any woman holding a degree from a Canadian University. The principle will be observed of granting the scholarship alternately to students engaged in scientific research and those engaged in literary, historical, or philosophical studies.

The awards in both cases will be based on evidence of character, intellectual achievement, and promise. Further particulars may be obtained from the Registrar's Office.

GOVERNMENT'S BILL REJECTED IN PARLIAMENT

Sylvia Grove Leads Opposition to Victory

ZATZ OPENS DEBATE

Phoney Fascists Seize Power by Coup d'Etat

His Majesty's government went down to defeat last night after a long and heated debate on the bill: "Resolved that this House regrets the passing of Victorianism." Howard Minogue, the Vice-President of the Debating Union, occupied the Speaker's chair at the session of the Mock Parliament that was held in the Union Ballroom.

Saul Zatz, the Prime Minister opened the debate by stating that the question was a very important one. Declaring that "The government only regrets the passing of that which adds to the progress of humanity," he briefly outlined the benefits in the political, economic, and social aspects of Victorianism. In the course of his remarks he stated that the government had no antagonism against women in general but against a single type of femininity.

The leader of the opposition, Sylvia Grove, began by stating that it was the Government's obvious intention to force modern society back into the "Black Hole of Victorianism." (Continued on Page Four.)

'Headlines' Addresses Resumed on Monday

Professor F. R. Scott of the Faculty of Law will address the third meeting of the "Behind the Headlines" series on Monday, November 7 in Strathcona Hall. The news of the week will be Professor Scott's topic, and he will try to show what its significance is in the light of what has already happened on the world scene.

Last year Professor Scott, an authority on economic and social questions, addressed the first of the "Behind the Headlines" series on the subject of "Peace in China."

As usual, the meeting will commence at 1.30 p.m. and continue till 1.55. For those who can remain longer, a short discussion will follow.

It was announced that at a future meeting Professor Marsh of the school for Social Research will be the speaker.

Varied Meetings with Celebrities Described by Daily Interviewers

J. S. and E. F. Address Opening Meeting of Literature Society on Chats With Morley, Priestley and Gertrude Lawrence

The adventures and experiences they have had interviewing celebrities for the Daily were described under the title of "Behind the Bylines" by Esther Feigelman and Jeannette Scholnick, who addressed the opening meeting of the Literature Society in the Arts Building yesterday afternoon.

"Our work is very interesting and we enjoy it thoroughly," said Esther Feigelman, who is better known as E. F., "for we interview only the people we want to. These are divided into three classes: those connected with music, with literature and with the theatre. However, you must not imagine that it is all fun; sometimes we have to spend hours waiting for an interview, and more hours writing it up."

She then went on to describe some of the famous people she has seen. "Christopher Morley was the first," she said. "When he was here during the Book Fair, I met him at the dinner, and asked him if he was willing to be interviewed. He said he was, but refused to answer my questions; he just had me follow him around, and describe what he did."

TEA DANCE HELD IN UNION AFTER GAME

After the Varsity-McGill game tomorrow afternoon comes the season's fourth football tea dance, to be held in the Ballroom of the McGill Union. Music will be supplied by Art Etienne and his swingsters.

Dancing will begin at 5 p.m. and will continue to 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served in the Grill Room and Cafeteria. Of the large number of Toronto supporters coming down to witness the game many are expected to attend.

Instructors from a local dancing school, who made such a hit at the last two tea dances with their demonstration of the Lambeth Walk and Shag, have again been invited to illustrate the intricacies of these modern dance steps.

Tickets are $1 per couple, and may be obtained at the Tuck Shop in the Union.

RVC DEBATERS PICK OFFICERS

Rhoda Henderson Elected President of Society

Teams Named for Debate in Engineering Building

Results of the elections held yesterday at the first business meeting of the newly organized Women's Debating Union have been announced as follows: President, Rhoda G. Henderson; secretary-treasurer, Sonja Elkin; first year representative, Joan Edwards; second year representative, Jean Horton; third year representative, Patricia Armstrong.

Also announced were the names of both the Co-Eds and the Engineers' team for Monday's debate in the Engineering Building. Representing the Co-Eds will be Rhoda G. Henderson and Jean Horton; representing the Engineers will be Bob Fricker and Huntley Duff.

Coads Support Negative.

The debate takes place at five o'clock Monday afternoon in Room 33 of the Engineering Building. The resolution is, "Resolved that the female of the species is more deadly than the male." The co-eds are upholding the negative side of the argument.

Hope was expressed by the newly-elected executive that a large number of co-eds would come and support their debater on Monday against the attacks of the misogynistic plumpers.

Though yesterday's meeting was called primarily for the election of officials for the present season, other business was also discussed. Among other things it was decided to hold evening meetings once a (Continued on Page Four.)

RECORD CROWD EXPECTED AT BIG FOOTBALL CLASSIC BETWEEN VARSITY, MCGILL

Varsity Hopeful

Fast Young Backfield Expected to Do Well

McQuarrie Returns

Prince and Gray to Kick; Toronto Team Just Hitting Stride

By ALAN HARVEY.

Associate Sports Editor, The Varsity Toronto, November 4.—Accompanied by a large band of supporters, the Varsity team invades McGill today for their all-important clash with the Redmen tomorrow afternoon. According to play-off rules in the Intercollegiate Union, Varsity must defeat the Redmen or relinquish their titular hopes, hence the McGill date has become the most important one on the Toronto calendar.

No More Injuries.

For the second time this season, the Blues came out of their joust with Western without an injury. In previous games, Doug Turner, Jim McDonald and Ken McQuarrie all suffered injuries, while Don Mumford, line-smashing plunger, was forced to the sidelines by an attack of appendicitis. With the exception of McQuarrie, all these players will be missing from the line-up when Varsity faces McGill at Molson Stadium tomorrow.

A young, light backfield, specializing in speed and strategy, will carry the hopes of the Varsity supporters in the absence of Mumford and McDonald. Murray Scott, hero of last week's victory, will call the signals from the quarter post. Another youthful star who earns his spurs against Western, namely Charlie Prince, will see plenty of action on the Blue backfield.

Prince will divide kicking chores with Cam Gray. Incidentally, Gray showed flashes of his old brilliant self against the Mustangs and may give the Redmen plenty to worry about. Lou Somers, the speedball of the half-line, was effectively shackled by the iron-clad Western down-field tacklers last Saturday, but should go well against McGill. Bee Rowland has hit his true stride in recent games, and is expected to go for large gains through the centre of the McGill wing-line.

Front Line Strong.

DANCE HELD AFTER GAME BY COMMERCE

The School of Commerce has extended to all McGill and Varsity football fans an invitation to its first Football Prom in the Salle Doree of the Mount Royal Hotel on Saturday evening.

As Commerce is well represented on the McGill Senior Team, the Commercial Undergraduates Society, in sponsoring the hop, feels that the occasion of this season's last scheduled home game is an appropriate one for the school's first dance.

Patrons for the Prom are Dean and Mrs. Hendel, and Professor R. R. Sugars, Director of the School of Commerce, and Mrs. Sugars. Many of the Varsity supporters have already expressed their intention of attending.

Music supplied by Blake Sewell's orchestra will be continuous from 10 p.m. to 2 a.m. Dress for the occasion is optional, and tickets can be obtained at the Tuck Shop for $1.00 per person plus tax.

TWO CONTEST DEBATING POST

Minogue and Parker Nominated to Presidency

All Members of Students' Society Eligible to Vote Today

All members of the Students' Society are eligible to vote today in the election for president of the Debating Union Society to be held at 5 p.m. in the Music Room of the Union.

Nominated to fill the position are Howard Minogue, Engineering 2, and John Parker, Arts 3. Both nominees have in the past been active members of the Debating Union Society.

This election was necessitated by the resignation of Morton Godine, Godine, a graduate student preparing for his M.A. in Political Science, was forced to resign the presidency because, according to the constitution of the Society, only an undergraduate may be president.

Strathconians Dance 'At Home' Tomorrow

Dancing, supplemented by a floor show, will be the program for the Strathcona residents' "At Home" in the Hall on Saturday evening.

This floor show will feature the singing of Irish songs by Tom Jones, a resident of the Hall, and of a group of French songs by Mme. C. Bernier. Bill Johnson will tap-dance.

Admission price of the dance, which is scheduled to begin at 9 p.m., is $1 per couple, including refreshments.

Reporters Note!

A tour of The Gazette will be held on Tuesday November 8th. Those reported wishing to go on that tour please sign the lists on the wall in the Daily office.

McGill Prepared

Smooth-Rolling Machine Shown in Workout

RUSCHIN STILL OUT

Keefer Back; LaBarge Up From Seconds; Rest of Team Is Sound

The stage is set for the grid classic of the year. Tomorrow afternoon at Molson Stadium the only undefeated and untied major team in Eastern Canada does battle with a team determined to avoid elimination. An anticipated record-breaking crowd of over 16,000 people, two bands and sundry other folk, including a double force of ushers, will be on hand to witness the struggle. Those who think they know, for the most part, pick McGill to win, but on the other hand a University of Toronto outfit hits town tonight with the intention of doing or dying. The game will start at 2.15 p.m., 15 minutes earlier than usual.

A half-time programme has been arranged by Major Forbes which will be a replica of the Varsity-McGill game in miniature. A group of youngsters wearing Red and White and Blue will demonstrate to onlookers how the gentle art of football should really be played.

Practice Brisk.

Last night the big Red team breezed through a thorough signal workout, brushed up on forward passing offense, stressing protection to the passer and did some stiff blocking work. Spirits were high and the plays were breaking better than in the previous night's workout.

McGill will field a team missing Captain Lou Ruschin, out with a bad knee suffered at Kingston, Murray Telford, who dislocated his shoulder in the Limestone City, and Eddie Tabah, whose ailing elbow has kept him out of action since the Western game. All the rest of the team is raring to go.

The cause of anxious glances in tomorrow's tussle will be the front line. The three regulars missing were important men in the inside and middle wing positions. Flanking Prestie Robb at snap will be Howie Bartram and McDougall, while next on either side will be Andy Anton and Bob Kenny. LaBarge, who has come up from the inter-mediate, and Chuck Smith are the only relief on the line. At the outside positions Hall and Wilson will start with Jacobson and Drury, furnishing aid. Coach Kerr has been able to interchange any of (Continued on Page Four.)

World News in Brief

Mystery Blast Disables German Ship

Vancouver, November 3.—In the third accident of its career the Vancouver, freighter of the Hamburg-American Line was blown up today, leaving Oakland, California. The source of the mystery blast remained undiscovered late today, but police after boarding the stricken vessel suspected that the explosion might not have been entirely accidental. Over half of the passengers were Canadians.

Search of Spenser Grave Fails

London, November 3.—Hidden from the gaze of the public, a squad of grave-diggers, sworn to secrecy, failed tonight to identify the memorial Spenserian ashes in the dust of the Poet's Corner of Westminster Abbey. These nocturnal operations were an attempt to find evidence to prove that Bacon wrote Shakespeare's plays.

Around the Campus

The big event tomorrow is the football game—Molson Stadium—and everybody notices, 2.15, not 2.30... Saturday is a great day for the lovers of swing... The last tea dance of the season will take place after the game in the Union... The Meds will also assemble in Assembly Hall, Medical Building, 4.45 p.m. ... Commerce holds its first prom, Mount Royal Hotel, 10 p.m.—all on Saturday... The Varsity vanquished (we hope) are expected to attend all of these... The residents of Strathcona Hall will also celebrate the game with a dance at 9 p.m. ... Vote for the President of the Debating Union at 5 p.m. in the Music Room of the Union today—Minogue or Parker?... Seekers of Truth should hear the Rev. A. A. Barclay at the I.V.C.F. lunch in the Union at 1 p.m. today... Coeds brave enough to enter the Engineering Building will hear R.V.C. oppose the Engineers on the subject of the deadliness of the female of the species Monday... Coming down to serious matters, the Newman Club meets Sunday morning at 10 p.m. in Congress Hall... As we said last week, Varsity delenda est!

McGILL HARRIER TEAM BEATS DARTMOUTH

LLOYD COOKE WINS IN HANOVER EVENT

Intermediate Squad Loses to Dartmouth Freshmen

First Meeting of American and Canadian Colleges

Hanover, New Hampshire, November 4.—(By Special Dispatch to the McGill Daily)—The McGill Senior Track Stars last night defeated Dartmouth in a harrier run held here. Lloyd Cooke, star of the Intercollegiate Meet, led the McGill team to victory. In the second race the undefeated Dartmouth Freshmen outran the Red's second team to win over the 2.8 mile course.

Lloyd Cooke and Glen Cowan placed first and second respectively with Terry Todd 4th, Clarry Frankton 8th, and Joe Berman 11th. McGill outscored Dartmouth, 26-30 (the team with the lowest score winning) over a difficult and rugged course. Cooke won with time of 26:07 minutes. This marked the first competition of its kind between American and Canadian universities, and indicates how McGill stands in this branch of sports compared with American colleges.

The Dartmouth Freshman team outscored the McGill Intermediates, 23-34, when they placed high in the event. Their winning man finished the run in 17:25 minutes. The Red runners placed 3rd, 5th, 6th, 8th, 12th, these places being taken by Peter, Rodney, Olynk, Hyde and Ross respectively.

McGILL SKI CLUB PLANS FOR SEASON

Club to Hold Meeting in Union Ballroom

The 1938-39 ski season is fast approaching, therefore it is only fitting that the skiers should organize for the new season. The Union Ball Room will be the meeting point for McGill skiing enthusiasts on Thursday, November 10. The most important topic for discussion will be the passing of rules and regulations concerning the club's policy and its future. The general business of the evening will include the enrolment of members and the sale of badges. An innovation in the club's policy will be the sponsoring of various activities of particular interest to the non-competitive members. The price of membership in the club this year will include an outstanding red and white badge and a copy of the Canadian Ski Year Book.

Of particular interest to the freshman class is the fact that the McGill University Ski Club is one of the oldest and best-known clubs of its kind in America—Dartmouth and McGill were the sponsors of organized intercollegiate winter sports competitions as early as 1912. The Intercollegiate Ski Union is the present governing body and includes in its membership all colleges in Eastern Canada and the Eastern United States, where ski sport is the vogue. It is therefore highly fitting that the McGill University Ski Club have a large membership this year of all years, since the club is host to the 1939 Intercollegiate Ski Union championships. All students interested in skiing, whether it be competitive or pleasure skiing, are urged to become members. The cost ($0.50) is small and the club will welcome membership and support.

Every Monday, Wednesday and Friday at the Stadium at 5 o'clock a pre-season conditioning practice is to be held and all skiers wishing to properly prepare themselves for competition and pleasure skiing this coming winter are asked to turn out. The workouts starting this Monday will be conducted by Dr. Beck, a former member of the French Olympic ski team. In the past the workouts have been enthusiastically attended and everyone has had a lot of fun, and at the same time acquired valuable pre-season training and instruction. Whether one wishes to try for a place on the ski team or is just interested in pleasure skiing the invitation is extended to all. Everyone has an equal opportunity for the team and all skiers at college are asked to avail themselves of the facilities provided.

RED SECONDS PLAY ROCKLAND MONDAY

Winner of This Game Will Be League Leaders

The Red Seconds will play their second to last game on Monday night, when they meet the Rockland Seniors. If Buster Fletcher's squad can defeat Rockland they will stand to win the Senior Q.R.F.U. (city division) as they have not been defeated this season. In their last meeting with the East-end Team they played to a 6-6 draw. Monday's game will find these two teams in excellent shape, and ready to fight to the last whistle. The Red Team has been practicing steadily and all members of the squad should be in fighting trim. None of the Redmen are on the sick list and thus the McGillmen will be at complete strength.

The game will be played under the lights at the Molson Stadium. It appears as if McGill will have two championships this year. Support the Seconds and they will try to bring home the championship. Remember, that the Seconds of today are the Seniors of tomorrow.

All those who have dressed for any of the games this season will please turn out for the team picture to be taken today at 1:15 p.m. at the Field House.

SPORTS NOTICES

Skiers.

Starting on Monday Dr. Beck will be conducting ski training classes. They will be held Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays at 5 p.m., at the Field House.

Anyone intending to ski for a McGill team this season is strongly advised to turn out. Others interested in skiing are very welcome to attend.

Hockey Notices.

Seniors: There will be a senior practice today from 5 to 6 p.m. for the following men: Emerson, Weiber, Soper, Brandes, Anton, Dunn, O'Flaherty, Dickson, Perowne, McConnell, Craig, O'Brien, Walker, Porteous, Kennedy, McDonald, Doherty, Thompson, Owen, Crutchfield and Hibbard. All of these men who have not been medically examined this year should do so immediately. Any new men who have not yet tried out for the seniors and wish to do so should report to the coach at 5 p.m.

Archery

Will the following girls, who will represent McGill against Macdonald on Saturday please be on the field at 9:45 a.m. sharp: J. Brown, M. Nutter, E. Harris, A. MacIntosh, M. Minto, R. Schofield.

Soccer Team to Play High School All Stars

On Saturday, etc., the Red Soccer Team will play the All Star Soccer Team which will be chosen from the players in the High School League. This game will be played on the upper stadium and will start at noon. The members of the McGill Team who will participate in this game are as follows: Snell, Saltibus, Laing, Molson, Hagen, Soroka, Archer, Bailey, Leonards, Northcott, Richan, Janikun, Gustafson, Grad, Tetrault.

On Armistice Day the Red Team will play Macdonald College, and on November 12 they will go to Kingston to play R.M.C.

In the Interfaculty soccer match played yesterday afternoon Arts and Science defeated Engineering by the score of 3-2. The winners by virtue of their win take the lead in the league which has the two above mentioned teams and a strong team from Medicine.

Concerning Water Polo

By Mac

From all I can make out this is the first time that Water Polo and Swimming have had the pleasure of a weekly column in the Daily. We will do our best not to make it too dry. We will endeavour to keep you posted on the progress of the two divisions. There will be little if any swimming news however until later in the fall.

Few understand no doubt that McGill has been playing an extremely difficult schedule. It is no disgrace to lose to Y.M.H.A. or M.A.A.A. Y.M.H.A. are the Dominion Champs. and in their last game M.A.A.A. held them to an 8-8 draw. Does that clear away the fog?

Wednesday against the M.A.A.A. without any substitutes McGill was defeated by 11-5. It was evident that the Red Team had improved greatly in spite of the fact that Lorne Shapiro was on the sick list. I think that it is common news that Lorne is the best defensive player in the city.

It has been decided that there will be more and more stress put on building up a strong Junior team. Formerly the idea of a Junior team was to give everyone a (Continued on Page Four)

MED. ENG. COMM. TIE FOR FIRST

Engineers and Commerce Won Touch Rugby Yesterday

League Leader to Be Decided in Today's Game

With student interest reaching fever pitch, in interfaculty touch rugby, Commerce and Engineering won their games yesterday to make a three-cornered tie for first place with Medicine. In the opening game of the afternoon the Business Men defeated the Arts Students by the score of 6-0, and in the second game the Plumbers defeated the Molar Maulers by the score of 12-6.

Today's game between Commerce and Medicine should prove of great interest since both teams are tied for first place. Both of the teams are playing very good football and a win for either team will put them out in front as league leaders. Students are urged to support their respective faculties, as without your support the teams are at a disadvantage. The game today will start at 4:30 sharp.

CALLING ALL PUGS!

If there's to be a Boxing team this year, we need more men, especially in the lighter classes. So all you fellows with a fighting look in your eye turn up and let Coach Bert Light limber you up. He can make a boxer out of you in no time. Besides all this is to your advantage; it puts you in wonderful condition; it gives you all the more pep to study.

We are anxious to see George Muttiberry, Bob Brown, Pete Stanley, Abe Bazerman and Aime Schuster.

All you Macdonald College pugs, prepare yourselves for a visit from Coach Bert Light, who intends to look you over very shortly.

Don't forget, what the team needs is more men in the lighter weights.

Very Few Tickets For Saturday's Game Left

Molson Stadium will hold for tomorrow's game the largest crowd that has ever assembled to witness a football game in Montreal. It has been many years (the glorious days of '28 were the last to witness such a fighting aggregation of men to wear the Red colours) since the followers of McGill football teams have become so enthusiastic about a game. Tickets for the game began to go early in this week, and still they came, anticipating the great game. On Tuesday night there were only two thousand reserved seats left and they did not take long to go.

To accommodate those who had been unable to obtain seats extra stands will be placed on the track. These additional seats will hold approximately 600. Yesterday afternoon it was learned from the Athletic Office that almost all of these additional seats had already been been sold.

In contrast to the first two works on the programme the orchestra presented Tchaikovsky's Sixth or Pathétique Symphony. The composer considered this his crowning achievement, coming as it did a few days before his untimely death. It reveals a sombre, soulful, pathetic, yet weird, Tchaikovsky. This is the cry of anguish from a sensitive soul perverted by the touch of a cruel world he could never understand.

The first movement opens on a dirge-like note. The second theme is brighter but retains a tender poignance as it is given out by successive groups of instruments. As is usual in his symphonies, the composer makes prolific use of brass, always mournful, sometimes shrieking with passionate grief.

The second movement with its unconventional five-four dance is still of great grace and beauty. A pounding drum gives out the rhythm, swelling and then falling to nothing. The melody is accompanied by a pizzicato in the strings which rises and then staggers downward delightfully.

The eerie march of the third movement is highly original in its brilliant workmanship.

The finale reverts to the dirge deep and soulful and ends as if in a sigh.

MAGNIFICENT RESTRAINT.

The performance achieved this great work was truly magnificent. Toscanini is too intelligent a musician to sink into cheap sentimentality. His firm yet sympathetic reading attained a restraint seldom, if ever, heard before; for even celebrated conductors have found it very difficult to maintain a smooth, level standard throughout this symphony.

Next week's programme follows: New World Symphony (Dvorak); Adagio for Strings, Essay for Orchestra (Samuel Barber); The Flute of Sans Souci (Paul Graener); Iberia (Debussy).

ODDS AND ENDS.

Charlie McCarthy will entertain Jean Arthur on the Big Show next Sunday at eight. The Ford Sunday Evening Hour has as its guest Kirsten Flagstad, brilliant Wagnerian soprano. Orson Welles, whose Mercury Theatre presentation last Sunday occasioned a panic in the Eastern States and necessitated a Communications Commission investigation, will dramatize three modern short stories. On RCA's Magic Key—Helen Jepson, Carlos Salzedo, the world's greatest harpist, Raymond Massey and the irrepressible Clifton Fadiman. Toronto's Walter Huston returns home with his wife, Nan Sutherland, to appear in the CBC's Shakespearean series. Their vehicle is Othello. The Montreal Orchestra and Concerts Symphoniques will alternate on Thursdays from 8 to 9 p.m. Sir Ernest MacMillan and the Toronto Symphony Orchestra are to go on the air every Tuesday at 9.30. Both these programmes are carried by the CBC's nationwide local outlet network, CBM and CBF. The New York Philharmonic with John Barbirolli at the podium features Robert Vroval in Brahms's Violin Concerto. Vroval is to appear here with the Montreal Orchestra later in the season. Also on the programme is Brahms's jolly Academic Festival Overture and Sibelius's Symphony No. 2.

here, the Bren gun inquiry is making news every day of the week. The probe will wind up within a month and Mr. Justice H. H. David of the supreme court of Canada, the one-man royal commissioner, will hand his report to the government.

Drew Justified.

So far, in the opinion of most writers covering the probe, Col. Drew's attack on the Bren gun contract between the national defence department and the John Inglis company of Toronto for 7,000 Bren guns was generally justified although several of his specific charges cannot be proved.

Everyone connected with the inquiry in any way is quite cautious not to pre-judge the case but the impression grows that it might have far-reaching repercussions in the national defence department personnel. Col. Drew's prestige seems to have gone up several points and the success he has attained at the investigation will probably assist him in becoming the new Ontario Conservative leader, succeeding Hon. Earl Rowe.

With some of Canada's most important legal talent assisting with the case, the amount of bickering and personal animosity shown in the court is a rather amazing feature of the probe. It annoys Justice Davis considerably and he persistently raps counsel for wasting time and bringing up non-essential matters.

came under two classes he said. The first is incurable due to hereditary and constitutional defects. People who fall into these two classes can only be made more comfortable and put to doing the kind of work for which they are capable. That is all he stated that can be done for them.

This second class of mental disorders is due, he said, to environmental causes. Under this class would come bad home life, defective habit formation while young, etc. In discussing the treatment of those who fall into the second class, Dr. Viner declared that one of the improved methods used today can be traced to Freud, even if those who use this method refuse to give him credit.

Hypnotism Cures Amnesia.

Turning from the broad field of psychiatry, Dr. Viner began his discussion of hypnotism by reiterating that hypnotism is not an important branch of the curing of mental diseases. He stated that to his way of thinking hypnotism is the best cure for cases of more or less permanent amnesia. He told several stories about cases in which he was interested in which hypnotism aided in the curing of the people afflicted. At the conclusion of his talk, Dr. Viner answered questions levelled at him by the dental students. He was asked how hypnotism worked. His reply stated that it succeeded according to suggestibility of the person being hypnotized.

give as generously as they can to the Amalgamated Charities Campaign and to warm up that chilly looking thermometer at the gates by giving quickly. "McGill University is itself a charitable institution which pays more than half of the cost of the instruction it offers, and students who enjoy this pleasant form of charity should have a natural and an immediate sympathy with the wonderful preventive and educational work Montreal Charities are doing among our underprivileged children and young people.

"In the Amalgamated Charities there are over sixty agencies spending altogether more than a million dollars a year on essential social services to those who badly need them. This huge sum the campaigns must collect from ourselves, the privileged few. The value of the work these agencies do is unquestioned. It must make to our sympathies and our conscience an irresistible appeal and the answer to that appeal at McGill will, I feel confident, be a completely successful campaign.

by a broken nose. Sirdevan will be supported by Moose Rogin, Beely McMillan, George Meen, Cam MacLachlan, and Bill Schwenger. Ted Jarvis, his injured hand in a cast, will probably vacate his regular outside wing berth to fill in along the line, leaving the end positions in the capable charge of Norm Beattie, Jack Holden and Ben Shukun.

The sentiment in Toronto seems to be that the Stevenites have not yet struck their true stride. To date the Blues have played rather erratic football, characterized by odd flashes of brilliance and long stretches of mediocrity. In Montreal, however, the Blues will be faced with the prospect of victory or elimination, and it is felt that this may be the spark that will bring out the best football that the team is capable of playing.

these men and still feels safe on the downfield tackling.

Backfield Ailing.

On the backfield there are mixed feelings of joy and apprehension. Bob Keefer will be back in the game, but he has a heavily-taped shoulder that may last the game and then again may not. Russ Merfield is his usual steady self for the heavy chores on the backfield, while Ronnie Perowne has a leg that refuses to respond to requests from the rest of his body to move properly. He is still handicapped by the injury to his leg suffered when he banged into the yardsticks at Queen's last week. He will be in shape to handle the quarterback duties all right. Ernie Rossiter, Massey Beveridge and Art Bradsher will be available if needed on the backfield.

Herb Westman will do the kicking, and many are speculating as to whether he will be able to preserve his pass-interception record of at least one a game. Varsity are likely to play a wide-open game, attempting considerable forwards. McGill's shifty pass defence should find that rather interesting. Perry Foster has been hoisting lofty punts in workouts and, while the distance has not been quite as great as Westman's, there has been considerable more height. Foster will be dressed for the game and may see some action in another role than kicker.

GOVERNMENTS BILL REJECTED

torianism." She declared that it would be foolish to forget the years of progress, and then proceeded to outline the disadvantages if Victorianism were brought back. She challenged the Government's statement that the Victorian era was a pillar of democracy, and charged that social conditions were worse then than they are at the present time.

Women Should Return Home

Louis Shapiro, the second speaker for the Government, stated that it was not his intention to subjugate the right of women, but to restore her to her former revered and respected position. It was his belief, the speaker stated, that domestic and community life have lost much because women have attempted to equal men, when they are unequal physically and temperamentally. Shapiro closed by saying that woman has failed in this endeavour, and that she must return to the home as in the Victorian era in order to regain her former charm, beauty and attractive personality.

The second speaker for the opposition, Jean Horton, took exception to the government's assertion that the Victorian era was a golden age for women, and stated that the passing of that age marked the emergence of women from the "murky recesses of Victorianism, late and unlamented."

Phoney Fascist Speech.

During the latter speech there were frequent interjections from the Phoney Fascist Party, and Neville Wykes took the floor and stated that his party opposed the return to Victorianism evident in the present day, and believed that there was a new place for women in the nation. At this point the debate became very heated and a dispute arose as to the leadership of the Phoney Fascist Party. Many independents expressed their views, and only by threatening to have the Sergeant-at-Arms eject various elements from the House was the speaker able to preserve the peace. After the Government and the Opposition had summed up their views, the vote was taken on the bill, and the government suffered defeat by the opposition backed by a determined Phoney Fascist Group.

As the Speaker declared the house adjourned and left the chair, this group seized power by a coup d'etat.

LECTURES START FOR MAC AGGIES

Registration for Diploma Students Closed Monday

Macdonald College, November 4.—Registration for diploma course students in Agriculture closed on Monday of this week and lectures began the following day. This is a two-year course of five months' duration each year, affording an excellent opportunity to study practical agriculture in the winter season. Such widespread countries as England, Holland, Bermuda and Hungary are represented in the diploma classes this year. There are nine second year and 26 first year students.

Class elections were held Tuesday evening when the following class officers were elected. In the senior class: president, R. Jellett; vice-president, S. Merrill; secretary, G. Scott; athletic representative, Sandy Clarke. Officers of the junior class: president, R. J. Manovill; vice-president, T. Geddie; secretary, G. Purdy; play representative, F. Birmingham; athletic representative, R. Broadbent.

chance to play in a game. However this year the quantity and quality of the players warrants a regular Junior team. At the end of the season two of the regular juniors will be asked to play Intercollegiate Senior Water Polo, and on December 9 and 10 they will make the trip to Kingston and Toronto. In the City league different Juniors will be chosen on merit to act as substitutes on the Senior Team. All Juniors should keep this in mind.

Although the water polo games are well patronized there are seldom any students present. Admittance to the games is free. We are anxious that more students support the teams with their presence. Notices of the games will be posted in the Daily one day previous to the games.

the scoring after about ten minutes of play. From then on the Artsmen played a furious game and many times it looked as if they would even the score. Although they were defeated the Arts Team was the better team this afternoon. Throughout the game, their teamwork was superior, and their passing attack netted them more yards than their opponents. The Artsmen have not succeeded in two starts.

In the Engineering Dentistry game, both teams scored touchdowns in the opening minutes of play. From then on both teams were unable to get into scoring positions. However with about five minutes left of play a forward pass meant for one of the Molar Maulers went astray, and was intercepted by a Plumber who ran the remaining distance to the Dentist's goal line for a touchdown. The game ended with no further score.

SOCIETY DISAGREES ABOUT AGREEMENT

Hope and Hopelessness of Philosophic Unity Discussed

Must philosophers disagree? A group of philosophers failed to agree on the answer to this question at the meeting of the Philosophical Society which was held last night.

As usual at meetings of the Society, there was a short introduction to the topic by a speaker before it was thrown open for general discussion. Last night's speaker was Ivor Williams, graduate student in philosophy. He attempted to give reasons for and against the assertion that philosophers must disagree, beginning with a comparison of the scientific and philosophic methods. "Scientific methods," he said, "involves the abstraction and

C.O.T.C. TEA DANCE

Colonel and Mrs. Morrissey Will Receive Guests

The McGill C.O.T.C. will have their second tea-and-dance after the McGill-Varsity football game this Saturday. The O.C., Colonel Morrissey, and Mrs. Morrissey are on the receiving list, and all cadets and officers are cordially invited to bring a girl to dance and have tea with. Dancing will take place in the dining-hall. Tea is to be served from 4.30 to 5.30, while dancing takes place from 5 until 7.30.

The discussion which followed concerned itself mainly with the further comparison of the scientific and philosophical methods; the consideration whether philosophers in the past really did disagree, as had been maintained; and whether agreement in philosophy was desirable in the first place, even if it could be reached.
